ABOUT CEDC

The Career Exploration & Development Center (CEDC) assists Lehman students and alumni with all phases of their career development to help them transition from college to career. This includes career exploration and counseling, deciding on a major, employer connections and internships. We strive to provide the highest standards of comprehensive and specialized services so that students may successfully meet the challenges of a globally competitive job market.

LAYING THE FOUNDATION

CEDC works with corporations and other organizations to connect qualified students with internships and experiential learning opportunities.

Benefits of an internship:

- » Exploring your career interests
- » Improving your resume
- » Applying studies to a real work environment
- » Earning college credit (pending availability based on academic requirements)
- » Building a professional network
- » Gaining experience in a specific field that can lead to employment

ENGAGE

- » Online Job Postings: Via Symplicity's Career Management System
- » Career Fair: Over 100 employers each spring
- » Internship Fair: Over 35 recruiters every fall
- » Selective Recruiting: Resume submission for qualified candidates
- » Recruitment Sessions: On-campus discussions by recruiters
- » Informational Seminars: Gain an understanding of day to day operations from experts in the field
- » Career Conversations: Learn about specific careers from individuals who work in the field reach your career goals.

CONNECT

Our career management system Symplicity enables CEDC to maintain effective communication with all employer contacts, students, and alumni. Registration on this site ensures that you receive the most current information available.

With Symplicity you can:

- » View job/internship postings and apply directly through the site
- » Learn about upcoming events and workshops
- » Upload resumes for review/approval
- » Receive emails and our weekly newsletter, "The Career Scoop"
