Master of Social Work

The mission of the Master of Social (MSW) Program at Lehman College/CUNY, the only graduate social work program in the Bronx, is to educate students to become ethical and competent graduate level social workers for practice in the urban environment. Through the implementation of an Advanced Generalist Practice curriculum, built on a liberal arts foundation, the program prepares students for leadership in urban communities. All students have classes and fieldwork experience in direct practice with individuals, groups and families, supervision, administration, policy practice, and research. Lehman's MSW program is fully accredited by the Council on Social Work Education (CSWE). Graduates of the MSW program are immediately eligible to take the New York State Licensed Master Social Worker (LMSW) exam.

Lehman's Social Work Department has been designated by the New York State Office of Alcoholism and Substance Abuse Services (OASAS) as an Education and Training Provider for the MSW students who wish to obtain certification as a Credentialed Alcoholism and Substance Abuse Counselor Trainee (CASAC-T). Students are required to complete the full MSW curriculum and two substance abuse elective courses.
