

WOMEN'S & GENDER STUDIES SPRING 2025 LECTURE SERIES

ARIANA OROZCO

ADJUNCT LECTURER, HISTORY DEPARTMENT

“TRUTH AND FAITH: THE HISTORY OF TAROT READING IN RELATION TO WOMEN’S AUTONOMY”

MARCH 26, 202512:30 P.M. - 2:00 P.M.*RM CA 222

This paper seeks to examine how non-regulated spiritual practices, namely tarot, have been used as modes of resistance by women since the 18th-century.

Popular across multiple continents, women have found escape from religious and social prosecution through individual forms of religiosity manifested through New Age spirituality.
