LAZARD PRESIDENT RAYMOND J. MCGUIRE TO TEACH EXCLUSIVE MASTER CLASS ON SUCCESS

Equipping Lehman College Students With Key Insights on “What It Takes to Be Successful”

WHO: Raymond J. McGuire

WHAT: Master Class: What It Takes to Be Successful in Business

WHERE: Lehman College, Carman Hall
250 Bedford Park Blvd West

WHEN: Thursday, April 4, at 2:30 p.m.

The Bronx, NY— Alongside several entertainment moguls, Jay-Z chose one person to lead New York City as mayor in 2021: Raymond J. McGuire. Following a momentous campaign, McGuire transitioned his vast leadership experience and multifaceted expertise to global financial advisory and asset management leader, Lazard, where he now serves as President. On Thursday, April 4 at 2:30 p.m., McGuire will share his master class, “What It Takes to Be Successful in Business,” with Lehman College students and alumni.

“We are honored to have an industry leader like Raymond J. McGuire share his invaluable insights with our students,” said Fernando Delgado, Lehman College President. “Interactions such as these helps bridge the gap between the classroom and the real world and give access to a population of students that usually would not come face to face with global leaders like President McGuire.”

McGuire’s unique perspective and expertise as both a business and civic leader will provide students with the guidance necessary to navigate the complexities of the finance industry. With a distinguished career that spans decades, he has held prominent leadership roles at top financial firms, including a 13-year term as Citigroup’s

Global Head of Corporate and Investment Banking, the longest tenure for this position in the history of Wall Street.

Beyond the boardroom, McGuire is committed to philanthropic efforts and holds leadership roles on several not-for-profit boards.
